Why you need Professional Indemnity cover?

You are required to maintain Professional Indemnity Insurance by your regulatory body. Professional Indemnity Insurance provides the insured firm indemnity against claims against the practice for errors and omissions in the provision of their professional services to third parties.

Professional indemnity also provides you cover for the legal defence costs involved with a claim against you. These can be extremely high; on average these will be between 20 and 40% of the amount sought against you.

Claims can be potentially very large and regularly in excess of your annual income. DUAL Corporate Risks pride themselves on their claims handling, with an in house team working on your behalf. By appointing solicitors on your behalf, we help you through extremely stressful times.

To try and assist you and make you aware of where your exposure to claims may lie we have included some examples of claims below:
